

The Political Compliance, Elections & Campaign Finance Team at Dykema includes a dedicated group of professionals with extensive experience in election, lobby, and campaign finance law, along with nonprofit corporation establishment, governance and federal tax law compliance for politically-related entities.

Who We Represent:

- Candidate Committees
- Leadership PACs
- Section 527 Administrative Accounts
- Corporate PACs
- Ballot Questions
- Super PACs
- Section 501(c)(3) entities
- Section 501(c)(4) entities
- Trade Associations
- Individual Donors
- Corporations
- Partnerships / LLCs

Our team can provide the following services:

Corporate Governance

- Draft organizational document for the appropriate type of committee
- Work with its designated officials to ensure all activity is properly organized and legally documented

Regulatory Compliance

- Preparation of initial documents and subsequent reports
- Day to day activities such as identification of permissible contributors, suggested contribution amounts, applicable limits for the committee, required disclaimers and consents, reporting questions, etc.

Tax Compliance

- Obtaining and maintaining tax exempt status
- Ensuring that funds collected by various committees are not taxable under applicable law
- Prepare all yearly tax information reports as required by federal law
- Provide model language for required tax notices
- Obtain and maintain tax-exempt status
- All annual tax filings

Financial/Account Management

- Any and all activities of the committee accounting
- Establish and maintain the committee's bank account, process all expenditures at the committee's request
- Assist with the development of a committee's annual budget

Our team is ready to support your efforts in the political giving and campaign process, and take all action necessary to comply with requirements imposed by applicable campaign finance lobby, election and ethics laws. Our experience allows us to effectively and efficiently handle any of your political compliance needs. Because of our knowledge and experience, we have been successful in having clients productively participate in the political process.

If you are interested in obtaining more information about our Political Compliance Services, please contact a member of our team.

W. Alan Wilk

Team Leader
Member | Lansing
517-374-9122 | wawilk@dykema.com

Renae Moore

Senior Compliance Specialist
517.374.9121 | rmoore@dykema.com